

The Champion: May - June 2023

News Release Date

04-28-2023

Inside latest edition of The Troutdale Champion, you'll read about everything that's going on in your community including:

- Troutdale's new Chief of Police
- Updates for The Confluence at Troutdale
- A preview of Troutdale's summer events
- A smelt run in the Sandy River
- May's spring cleanup events

... and much, much more!

The Champion was the only newspaper published in Multnomah County, outside of Portland, during the years 1893-1896. Today, it is solely the newsletter of the City of Troutdale.

The Champion is published bi-monthly and is distributed by mail to all residents of the City. You can read the entire edition below. If you are viewing on a mobile device, click here to download the latest edition.

Previous editions of the paper are available in our online archive. Excerpts from The Champion are included in various web pages in this site and on our social media channels.
